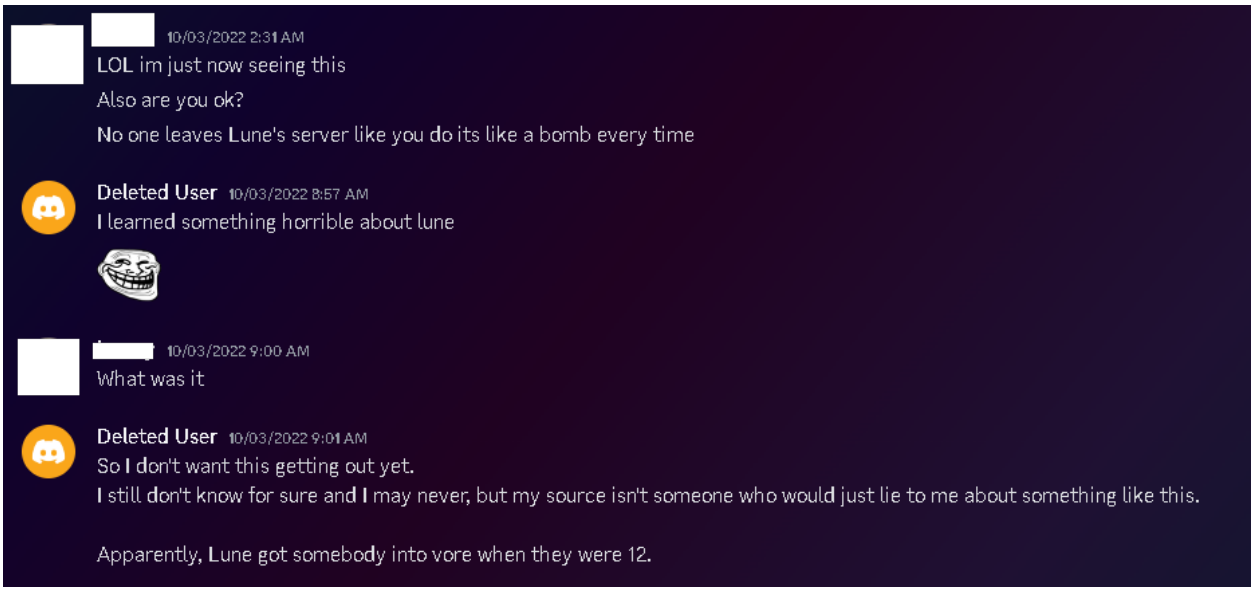
Lune Investigation

Preface

To start off, we want to say that this investigation has been an ongoing thing, for about a year. And while we had admission of wrong-doing, it wasn't enough to put this case to rest. Some current updates helped bring life into this investigation, and as such will be credited at the end. We also wanted to add that this investigation start before the Lumen Investigation, but since the Lumen Investigation was very much hot and had plenty of 'smoking gun' evidence, we turned our attention to that, hoping that we can gather more clues for the Lune case later. Well, it was much later, but we finally have the pieces of the puzzle.

The Beginning

This whole ordeal started around a time troubling post was found. Some information got "leaked" out and that's what sparked this entire investigation:



10/03/2022 2:31 AM
LOL im just now seeing this
Also are you ok?
No one leaves Lune's server like you do its like a bomb every time
Deleted User 10/03/2022 8:57 AM
I learned something horrible about lune
10/03/2022 9:00 AM
What was it
Deleted User 10/03/2022 9:01 AM
So I don't want this getting out yet.
I still don't know for sure and I may never, but my source isn't someone who would just lie to me about something like this.
Apparently, Lune got somebody into vore when they were 12.

Troubled by this, the user reached out to get some clarification. It didn't take long for Lune to respond to the allegations, denying them:

Tsukilune (still on break) 10/03/2022 9:48 AM okay so I will try my best to explain this in the best way possible i want to clarify at first that I never sent anything NSFW to anyone, nor do I want to fuck kids or anything like that because I am a victim of assault myself and it disgusts me to even think about
i want to get that out of the way the person spreading these rumors basically betrayed my trust and has been lying to me the whole time but that's another story for another time basically the long and short of it is, I made a stupid mistake in thinking that because I personally believe vore to be sfw and becuase I don't like the nsfw aspect of it, that it was ok to discuss. now I realized my mistakes and became disgusted by it. i have never done this before and have never done it after and I genuinely did not believe there was an issue. i have been stressinf about this because now I feel horrible for not realizing sooner. I DID make up with the person involved and they have accepted my apology, but understandably so are distant with me i have proof that we talked about this and I realized that I made a very VERY big mistake and I blame it on me not having the social understanding that I shouldn't have done that.
the person who talked with me about it (another 3rd party I won't name because they haven't done anything with me) is the one that informed me that what I did was not very good, and they believed me and said they believed I made an honest mistake, but then they blocked me months later and decided to lump me in with tooncat
the person who was involved doesn't want their name being put out there and they explicitly told me that if someone out there mentions them they're going to be upset because they don't want to be involved with anything (specifically because of an earlier incident with someone else)
im not asking for sympathy but I have to have you believe that this is an isolated incident, I learned from my mistakes, and if you really need further proof I can get you into a group chat with me and the other person i promise you im not a creep and I would never want to prey upon someone, I genuinely just made a mistake and I feel horrible over it

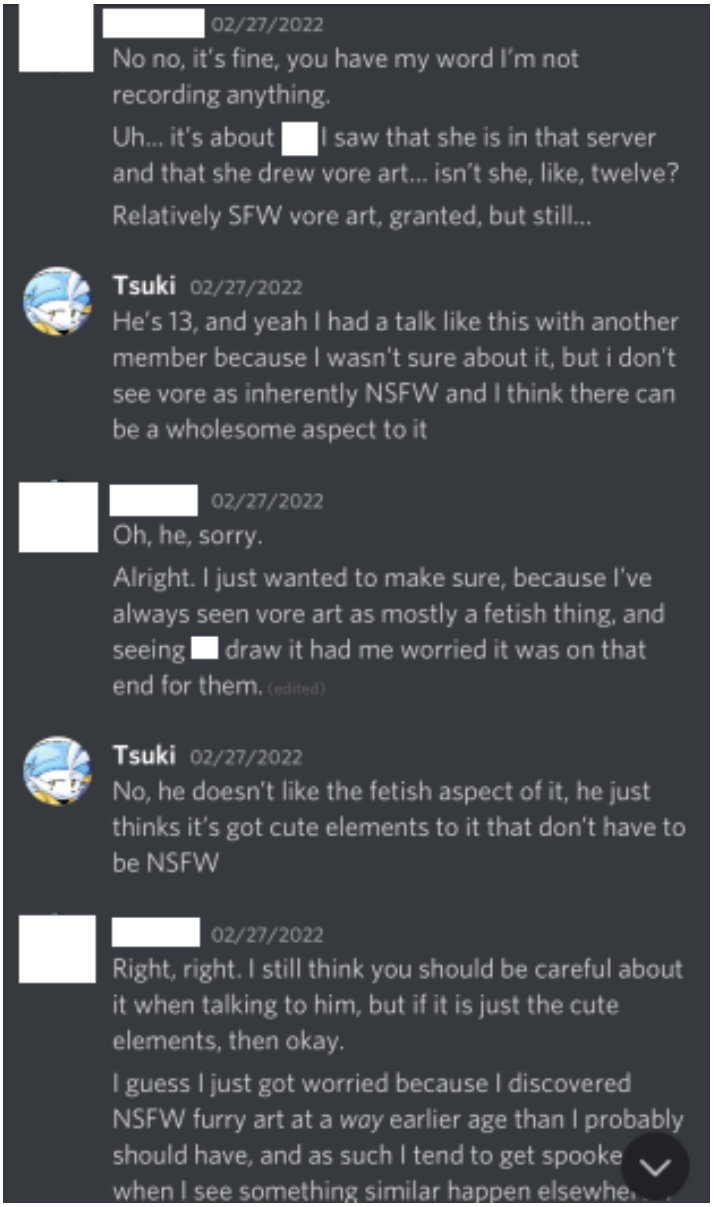
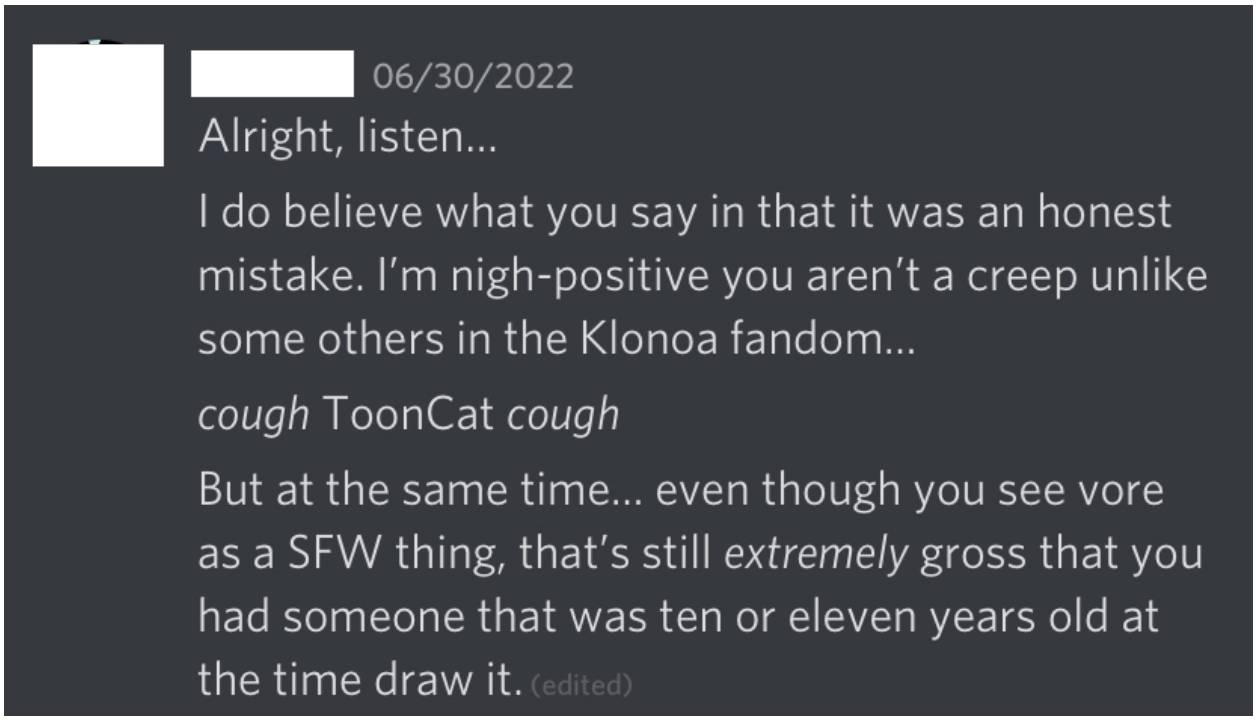
The people who “betrayed his trust” were the ones who leaked the information to begin with, but they were not in the wrong. Lune was clearly deflecting that vore = sfw, but that is clearly not the case. What is vore, you might ask? Vore, or Voreaphilia is a sexual fetish. In this fetish, characters are usually eaten whole, to sit in a belly. There is no such thing as wholesome vore. Also Lune fails to realize, that while he claims to be a victim of abuse, it does not mean that he is unable to abuse as well. It becomes a cycle in some instances.

The Leaking

With that said, the person who “leaked” the information, let’s call them CC. CC recorded his guilt and admission of age that Lune commissioned the minor. I would like to also add that this minor was “best friends” with Lune, despite Lune being 21 at the time and the minor being 11. Yet they went on to make a server together, the Moonlight Museum. Lune befriending minors is a bit concerning, but the fact that Lune commissioned one for fetish art more or less sets the tone for out of touch he is.



02/27/2022
No no, it's fine, you have my word I'm not recording anything.
Uh... it's about [redacted] I saw that she is in that server and that she drew vore art... isn't she, like, twelve?
Relatively SFW vore art, granted, but still...
Tsuki 02/27/2022
He's 13, and yeah I had a talk like this with another member because I wasn't sure about it, but i don't see vore as inherently NSFW and I think there can be a wholesome aspect to it
02/27/2022
Oh, he, sorry.
Alright. I just wanted to make sure, because I've always seen vore art as mostly a fetish thing, and seeing [redacted] draw it had me worried it was on that end for them. (edited)
Tsuki 02/27/2022
No, he doesn't like the fetish aspect of it, he just thinks it's got cute elements to it that don't have to be NSFW
02/27/2022
Right, right. I still think you should be careful about it when talking to him, but if it is just the cute elements, then okay.
I guess I just got worried because I discovered NSFW furry art at a way earlier age than I probably should have, and as such I tend to get spooke
when I see something similar happen elsewhe



[redacted] 06/30/2022
Alright, listen...
I do believe what you say in that it was an honest mistake. I'm nigh-positive you aren't a creep unlike some others in the Klonoa fandom...
cough ToonCat cough
But at the same time... even though you see vore as a SFW thing, that's still extremely gross that you had someone that was ten or eleven years old at the time draw it. (edited)

After the Deed

Eventually, possibly realizing how grave the situation was Lune went to apologize to the victim. But it was apparent that the victim was very much shook up after realizing it's fetish art:

Tsuki 05/31/2022
I don't think I was in the right mindset
Unfortunately
I want to ask you something though
And look, if you have attachment issues
I get how you feel but Eventually you really need to overcome it since Hm?
Tsuki 05/31/2022
I just want to ask if you can forgive me
I realize that I have made many errors,
I've looked at myself, seen the issues I have, and I want to face rhem head on and fix them
Way before any of this
I'm growing up again, and while I realize we are close I realize I need to get over these attachment issues
Do you have anything more to say?
Tsuki 05/31/2022
That I'm sorry from the bottom of my heart, and that you deserve the best.
The fetish thing
I don't want to say it's name anymore since it' emotional scar of mine, genuinely 05/31/2022
The fetish thing
I don't want to say it's name anymore since it's an emotional scar of mine, genuinely
I'm not sure what to do, I get that you don't have any bad intentions
Tsuki 05/31/2022
I want to help you in a genuine fashion. I was stupid and I want to make up for that I'm sorry, im at work and I'm trying to keep myself together
05/31/2022
I want to be honest
I actually don't know if I could forgive you or not.
I know this will hurt you but Sometimes I'm unsure of what to do even in situations like this Tsuki 05/31/2022
I get it
I'm aware of that
05/31/2022
Aware of what?
Tsuki 05/31/2022
You don't have to forgive me if you don't want to, but I still will apologize

The minor clearly is having lots of guilty and anxiety over the situation (the star by the text the victim speaking:

i drew nsfw of literal minors do you think that's something worth being forgiven rore?,
Today at 5:18 PM
You're also a minor though that's different
Its not safe for you at all, but at least now you're aware It'd be different and inexcusable if say, an adult partook in that

The worst part of this aspect was that Lune and Lumen and the minor were part of the same friend group. Lumen did terrible things to the same victim as before, and Lune knew about it, yet said nothing. Lune only helped “normalized” the abuse that the minor was given. And in that, Lune set himself as a victim as one of Lumen's advances, yet never came forward when questioned about the abuse from the minor, when there was ample opportunity.

However its get worse. The minor was also put into a vore server, which is where the art was displayed. Lune and the minor were in this server:

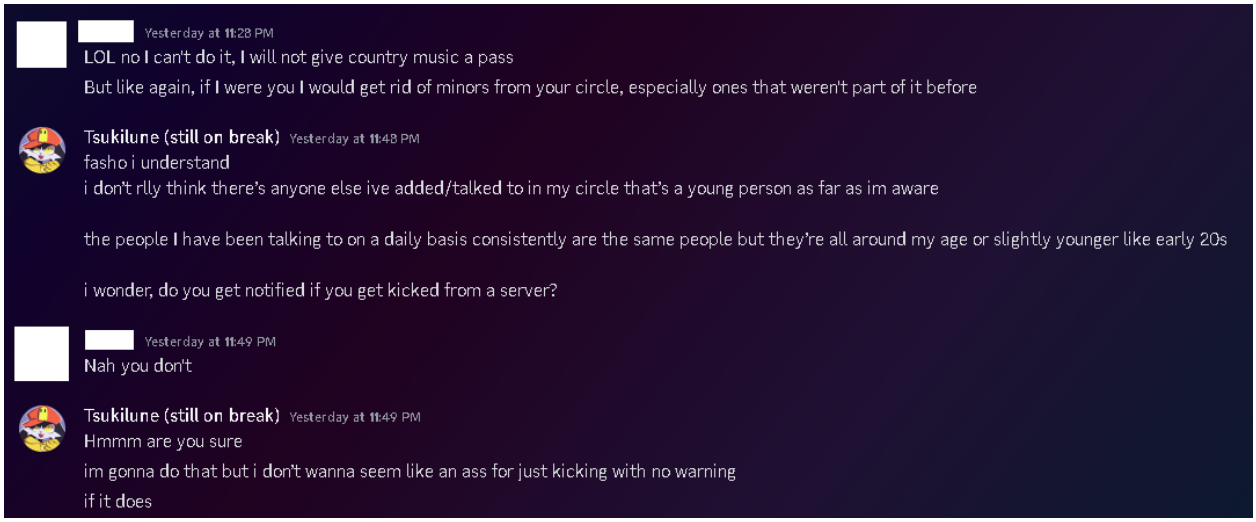
You do realize how bad this is

Beyond

Lune claimed to be moving on and learning, but kept befriending minors and getting close to them. After this was realized, a user came forward about this concern. But even after that, Lune seemed very hesitant about kicking them out of their server:



Yesterday at 11:28 PM
LOL no I can't do it, I will not give country music a pass
But like again, if I were you I would get rid of minors from your circle, especially ones that weren't part of it before Tsukilune (still on break) Yesterday at 11:48 PM
fasho i understand
i don't rlly think there's anyone else ive added/talked to in my circle that's a young person as far as im aware the people I have been talking to on a daily basis consistently are the same people but they're all around my age or slightly younger like early 20s
i wonder, do you get notified if you get kicked from a server?
Yesterday at 11:49 PM
Nah you don't
Tsukilune (still on break) Yesterday at 11:49 PM
Hmmm are you sure im gonna do that but i don't wanna seem like an ass for just kicking with no warning if it does

Again, for someone who claims to be socially inept, using terms as ‘wholesome vore” to even try normalizing a fetish, it nearly comes off as grooming. Yet, it seems as nothing was learned for this and that it was only going to cycle back around.

And with that information, we took action. We confronted Lune with what we evidence we had and offered him to chance to own up to what he did. To which he did put out his statement. However to say it was full of excuses for what he did, and not truly taking accountability. Regardless of that, we still banned Lune from KMC and since it involves a minor, we made this documentation for that reason.

A Special Shoutout

Had to put this out here, before we were sitting on this case for a while without much evidence, so a huge shoutout to Tooncat for finally sharing new information to help expedite this case. However, Tooncat is not innocent in any of this at all. When he found out about this information, What did he do? He did not pass it on, even though he knew about it. He just SAT on it until it benefitted him. It was only until he was getting in trouble for bypassing the NSFW word filters and also placing promoting streams from a NSFW Twitter account, to which, a server full of minors could see.

When asked to make these changes to his account or to make another SFW that was be easier to share, He decided NOW was a great time to use it as leverage and/or blackmail. Ultimately Tooncat was banned for attempting to blackmail us.

who was known to be an underage user suprised no one on the modding team has taken action into this despite being aware of the situation that was revealed last year (edited) actually, im more suprised that some people in the modding team wasnt aware of this considering a good amount were in the moonlight museum server then at the time i found "sfw vore art is probably the way they get comfort" sane but thinking now overtime and especially with the FA "vore is alright for minors" rule post they did, well that obviously changed some minds but hey, with rumors involving minors, im sure thats what kmc thinks is model behaviour (edited) im actually not too afraid to go public with this, since well kmc is the last leg involving the klonoa community but i've been able to get into other fractured klonoa communities lately so that loss wont be much

But don’t feel sorry for him. Because Tooncat knew that the minor was underage in the vore server. Yet said nothing. It doesn’t seem Tooncat cared about a minor being in an adult space, or what said adults were doing to the minor, it seemed more like Tooncat cares more about getting even/revenge.
